

Inter-Club Draws for Leinster Region

Please read the notes below before consulting the draws on the following pages.

Note 1A - Home Advantage in Round 1

For the First Round only: Home advantage automatically goes to the team drawn on top. (Exception – in the Barton Cup, this applies to Rounds 1 and 2).

Note 1A - Home Advantage in subsequent Rounds

Whenever a team is assigned a number or a letter beside their club name in a round of an Inter-Club competition, this will be used to determine home advantage, as follows:

For Second and subsequent rounds consisting of 17-32 teams (ie, when these rounds are in the second column of the draw): Clubs are assigned a number from 1-32 depending on their position in the draw. The club whose number appears first in the following sequence will determine home advantage in all matches in this round.

3...29...12...32...21...24...26...16...23...15...4...1...17...11...25...6...19...8...5...14...22...20...2...30...13...28...27...1
8...10...9...31...7.

For Second and subsequent rounds consisting of 9-16 teams (ie, when these rounds are in the third column of the draw): Clubs are assigned a letter from A to P depending on their position in the draw. The club whose number appears first in the following sequence will determine home advantage in all matches in this round.

H...N...K...A...F...P...O...D...G...J...C...E...I

For Second and subsequent rounds consisting of 5-8 teams (ie, when these rounds are in the fourth column of the draw): Clubs are assigned a letter from A to H depending on their position in the draw. The club whose number appears first in the following sequence will determine home advantage in all matches in this round.

F...B...E...H...D...G...C...A

For an Area Semi-Final: Clubs are assigned a letter from A to D depending on their position in the draw. The club whose number appears first in the following sequence will determine home advantage in all matches in this round.

C...A...D...B

For the Area Final of all National Competitions: Matches will be played on the same home/away basis as previous rounds – however, the two teams will draw lots, overseen by the Competition Convenor, to determine home advantage.

Note 2 – Schedule of deadline dates

Please note that we are not in a position to give final confirmation of the deadline dates at this time, and the deadlines for each round remain TBC in the draws published below. However, for indicative purposes, please find below the current draft schedule of deadline dates. It is anticipated that finalised dates will be published in early May. While dates may be subject to amendment, it is not anticipated that the first round deadlines will apply any earlier than the first weekend in June for any of these competitions.

The following is the draft schedule of deadline dates for competitions in the Leinster Region.
